CAUSE

On March 18, 2018, Mr. Miller voluntarily left the Houston House and changed his residence without approval from the Probation Office. According the Incident Report provided by the Houston House, Mr. Miller failed to submit a leave itinerary for the day and was therefore denied permission to leave the program. Mr. Miller attempted to submit an itinerary that appeared to be one from a previous date. After being denied, Mr. Miller absconded from the program.

On March 19, 2018, Mr. Miller contacted Officer Dufresne and they met at a residence in Pawtucket, RI that Mr. Miller was proposing to reside. Mr. Miller advised that he thought he could leave the program once he was able to find a suitable living arrangement. He was reminded that the Probation Office needed to approve the residence in advance of him leaving Houston House. He appeared remorseful and was instructed to report to the Probation Office on March 20, 2018, to discuss potential sanctions.

On March 20, 2018, Mr. Miller reported to the Probation Office as directed and met with Officer Dufresne. Officer Dufresne taught and applied STARR Cognitive Model with Mr. Miller in attempt to provide improved decision making skills. As a sanction for his noncompliance, Mr. Miller offered to complete 25 hours of community service.

Mr. Miller was advised of his right to counsel and his right to have a hearing. Mr. Miller executed the executed Probation Form 49 - Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation to now include the above-mentioned modifications to the condition of his supervised release. Acting U.S. Attorney Stephen G. Dambruch and Assistant Federal Defender Kevin Fitzgerald were advised of the proposed modification and informed that they did not have any objections. Based on the foregoing information, it is respectfully recommended that the Court modify Mr. Miller's conditions of supervised release as listed above.
